About the Delany Foundation

OUR HISTORY

The Delany Foundation is a registered not-for-profit charity, established in 2008 as a legacy of the Bicentenary of the Patrician Brothers, and named after their founder, Bishop Daniel Delany. Delany saw a need to educate poor Irish children denied schooling, since the 17th century. The Patrician ministry subsequently spread to Australia, U.S.A., Kenya, India, Papua New Guinea, and Ghana.

OUR VISION

- We seek to improve the human and spiritual condition of young people in need.
- We believe that education brings a sense of meaning and purpose to the poor.
- We fund Patrician-linked projects in circumstances of great need in India, Kenya, Ghana, Papua New Guinea, and Australia.

OUR OBJECTIVES

- To continue support for the Kenyan mission of education, medical clinic and mobile dispensary at Kabongo.
- To provide schooling, food and healthcare for children in Ghana.
- To shelter aged and homeless in Conoor, India
- To kick-start enterprises for street youth in Nairobi slums.

- To provide a constant reservoir of water for the Patrician community and its mission at Aitape in Papua New Guinea.
- To support the most needy youth in our Australian Catholic schools.

To date, the Patrician-linked schools in Sydney have been the main source of Foundation funding. These schools are:

- Holy Cross College Ryde
- Patrician Brothers' College Blacktown
- Delany College Granville (formerly Patrician Brothers' Granville)
- Patrician Brothers' College Fairfield
- All Saints College Liverpool (formerly Patrician Brothers' High School Liverpool).

The hope is to broaden the base of funding to include members of the wider Patrician family and their connections. Our Foundation is successfully changing lives. We do this by providing people with opportunity and choice where there is no State or Government funding available for the local communities, in the areas of Education, Healthcare, Pastoral Ministry, or supply of the basics of food and water.

We need your support to add to the quality of life of seriously disadvantaged young people and to improve their opportunity for a better future.

Sponsorship Packages

We warmly invite your organisation to consider sponsoring the Delany Foundation for a year. By becoming a sponsor, your organisation will benefit from positive exposure to thousands of families, whilst supporting a local Patrician Brothers school community, and overseas Patrician Brothers' Projects.
